

GILES&POSNER EAT!

The NEW Food Entertainment Range for 2008.

2008 will see the launch of Giles & Posner's new EAT Range, a selection of exciting new food entertainment products, a pleasurable yet healthy way to enjoy food.

The EAT Range will include table top raclette grills in different sizes, a stone grill, a cheese grill and a stonebake oven which provides the taste of the Mediterranean to a range of foods including authentic stonebaked pizzas! The essence of the EAT range is sociable and relaxed dining, ideal for family meals, dinner parties, intimate meals or quick snacks. Each product is simple to use and comes with a range of inspirational recipes, hints and tips allowing you to cook delicious foods in minutes, while enjoying the company of your guests.

Each product is so flexible that you can experiment using fresh meats, seafood, vegetables and cheeses teamed with seasonings, creating new flavours and aromas to tantalise the taste buds. Re-create many of your favourite experiences in the comfort of your own home, or find a gift or a party piece that is guaranteed to delight.

The EAT! Range products can be previewed on the 3-7th of February, at the Spring Fair in Birmingham, on stand 2E62 and on the 8-12th of February at the Ambiente in Frankfurt Germany, on stand 92A34.
